

$200 EACH MONTH PAYS MOST OF THE ANNUAL TUITION OF A STUDENT AT BIRZEIT UNIVERSITY OR BETHLEHEM UNIVERSITY

Taybeh Education Fund was created to help Taybeh students meet their tuition needs given priority to members of St. George Greek Orthodox Church of Taybeh, Palestine.

Project Objectives

- To raise money for an invested endowment fund to generate full or partial tuition payments each year for students of St. George Greek Orthodox Church.
- To help educate young Palestinian Christians at local universities.
- To sustain the Christian community in the Holy Land by helping with their basic needs for education.
- To foster better job opportunities locally.
- To help contribute to economic growth.

Plan and Procedures

The Taybeh Education Fund is directed and coordinated by CHRISTINA BOOKS d/b/a Canaan David Khoury Publications in affiliation with St. George Greek Orthodox Church of Taybeh. The supervisor of the fund is the Annunciation Church, maintaining, investing and disbursing annual tuition payments to Taybeh.

Students will be selected by the Advisory Board each spring with members of St. George Greek Orthodox Church having priority in the open-application process.

A cumulative list of sponsored students will be available annually.

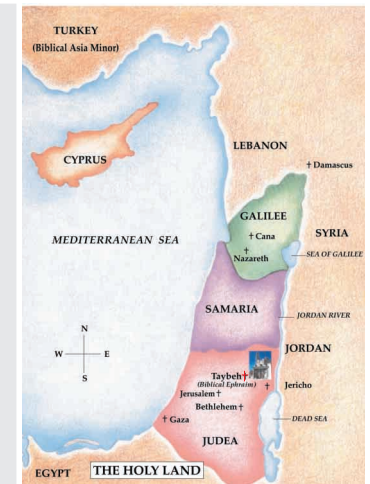

St. George Greek Orthodox Church of Taybeh in cooperation with the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral of Norfolk, Virginia established an endowment fund (2006) to help Palestinian Christian families meet tuition needs in local universities in Palestine. Since 2011, the Taybeh Education Fund is overseen by Annunciation Church, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Education is one of the most basic needs in the community along with housing and job creation

The Christian presence has dropped below 2% of the current 4 million Palestinians living in the West Bank and Gaza.
